1. Constitution

A Committee of the Boards of Swan General Ltd previously known as Swan Insurance Company Limited and Swan Life Ltd previously known as The Anglo Mauritius Society Limited known as the Corporate Governance Committee (the "Committee") was established in terms of resolutions passed by the Boards on June 1, 2005.

This Committee as established by the Boards will include in its terms of reference areas covered by a nomination committee and a remuneration committee.

The Corporate Governance Committee will work on behalf of the Boards and be responsible for making recommendations according to the following terms of reference:

- (i) Ensure that the reporting requirements on corporate governance, whether in the annual report or on an ongoing basis are in accordance with the principles of the National Code of Corporate Governance for Mauritius 2016 ;
- (ii) Establish a formal and transparent procedure for developing a policy on executive and senior management remuneration;
- (iii) Determine specific remuneration packages of executive Directors, including but not limited to basic salary, benefits in kind, annual bonuses, performance-based incentives, share incentives, pension and other benefits and consequently establish remuneration credibility with shareholders;
- (iv) Be kept informed of and/or be consulted in respect of packages determined by the Group Chief Executive for executives other than those appointed to the Boards;
- (v) Review the balance and effectiveness of the Boards and recommend on new Board appointments including appointments of executives to the Boards;
- (vi) Be responsible for identifying and nominating for approval of the Boards, candidates to fill Boards' vacancies as and when they arise, as well as put in place plans for succession, in particular for the Chairpersons and Group Chief Executive;
- (vii) Ensure that there is a clearly defined and transparent procedure for shareholders to recommend potential candidates to the Boards;
- (viii) Ensure that potential candidates to the Boards are free from material conflicts of interest and are not likely to simply act in the interests of a major shareholder or a third party;
- (ix) Identify skills needed and those individuals who might best be seen to be providing such skills in a fair and thorough manner, to ensure that the Boards remain effective and focused;
- (x) Determine any criteria necessary to measure the performance of executive directors in discharging their functions and responsibilities;
- (xi) Determine the level of executive, non-executive and independent non-executive directors emoluments;
- (xii) Determine the level of remuneration of members of all Board Committees (including this Committee) .

2. Membership

- 2.1 The Corporate Governance Committee shall consist of not less than three members, the majority of whom shall be independent non-executive Directors.
- 2.2 Non-independent Chairpersons of the Boards can only be the Chairperson of the Committee on condition that the majority of the members of the Committee are independent non-executive Directors. If this is not the case, then the non-independent Chairpersons of the Boards can be members of the Corporate Governance Committee but not its Chairperson.
- 2.3 The Group Chief Executive will attend the meetings of the Committee.
- 2.4 The Boards shall have the power at any time to remove any members from the Committee and to fill any vacancies so created. The Boards may rotate the Chairperson. Appointments to the Committee shall be for a period of three years extendable by no more than two additional three-year periods.
- 2.5 The current members are Mr. Nicholas Maigrot (Chairperson), Mr. Arif Currimjee, Mr. Peroomal Gopallen Moorooogen and Mr. Victor Seeyave.
- 2.6 The Group Company Secretary, Mr. Jaiyansing Soobah or his nominee shall be the Secretary of the Committee.

3. Responsibilities and Duties

The Corporate Governance Committee shall:

3.1 Board Candidates and Nomination

- 3.1.1 Make recommendations to the Boards on the appointment of new executive and non-executive Directors;
- 3.1.2 Identify and select candidates for approval by the Boards to fill board vacancies as and when they arise based on the Group's criteria. Such criteria include consideration such as diversity, age, skills and experience so as to enhance the Boards' ability to manage and direct the affairs and business of the Group, including, when applicable, to enhance the ability of Committees of the Boards to fulfil their duties and to satisfy any independence requirements imposed by law, regulation or listing requirements. In identifying suitable candidates the Committee may:
- Use the services of external advisers to facilitate the search;
 - Consider candidates from a wide range of backgrounds;
 - Consider candidates on merit and against objective criteria, taking care that appointees have enough time available to devote to the position;
- 3.1.3 Keep under review the leadership needs of the Group, both executive and non-executive, with a view to ensuring the continued ability of the Group to compete effectively in the marketplace;
- 3.1.4 Keep up to date and fully informed about strategic issues and commercial changes affecting the Group and the market in which it operates;
- 3.1.5 Make recommendations for membership of Boards' Committees in consultation with the Chairpersons of those Committees and the Boards' Chairpersons;
- 3.1.6 Make recommendations to the Boards for the continuation (or not) in services of any Director who has reached the age of 70;
- 3.1.7 Review the suitability for continued service as a Director of each Board member when his or her term expires and when he or she has a significant change in status, including but not limited to an employment change and recommend whether or not the Director should be re-appointed to the Board or continue as a Director;

SWAN CORPORATE GOVERNANCE COMMITTEE TERMS OF REFERENCE

- 3.5.9 Encourage the Group to participate to independent salary surveys and to seek advice from appropriate consultants, so as to facilitate the determination of all the essential components of remuneration and establish remuneration credibility with shareholders;
- 3.5.10 Report on its activities to the Boards regarding the remuneration policy of the Group;
- 3.5.11 The Committee will not determine the remuneration or terms of any consultancy arrangement of any non-executive Director, although it may make recommendations to the Boards if requested;
- 3.5.12 Recommend to the Boards the broad framework and cost of executive remuneration;
- 3.5.13 No member of the Committee shall be involved in any decisions as to his or her own remuneration. In order to assure his independence, the Committee will also review and recommend to the Boards the remuneration of the Group Company Secretary.

3.6 Guidelines for components of Remuneration

As part of achieving and maintaining reasonable, acceptable levels of remuneration, the Committee is encouraged to consider the following guidelines:

(i) Base Emoluments

- The general level of hourly or daily rates of emoluments earned by Directors in their professional capacities;
- The hours spent in travel, preparation for meetings as well as attendance;
- A fair and reasonable allowance for direct costs;

(ii) Forms of Payment

- Monetary;
- Shares or share options-This will have the advantage of aligning remuneration with the interests of shareholders by increasing the focus of Directors on Group's performance and share values. When share options are to be offered to non-executive Directors, shareholders must approve this offer in a general meeting prior to the allocation being implemented;

(iii) Reviews

The dates for review would also be an appropriate time to undertake evaluations of the performances of individual Directors, Executives and Senior Managers;

(iv) Equal Sharing

In line with the principles of collective responsibility, base emoluments should, wherever possible, be equitably apportioned, except in the case of additional responsibilities or workloads such as those conferred upon the Chairperson and upon members appointed to Board Committees;

(v) Supplementary Emoluments

Supplementary work resulting from membership of Board committees should be spread as evenly as possible among Boards members and recognised in the level of the base emoluments. If supplementary emoluments are charged separately, they may be calculated at an hourly or daily rate rather than annually, and should be subject to review in the same manner as base emoluments;

(vi) Directors' and Officers' liability insurance

- Directors should, wherever practicable, arrange for such insurance to be taken out, and for such insurance to be paid by the Group;
- The cover provided by the insurance should be as extensive as permitted by law, including all risks relating to legal costs;

(vii) Payments on termination

- The payment of retirement benefits to Executive Directors should be determined by the Group's particular circumstances ;
- The Committee should ensure that the payments or benefits of any nature on termination are not restricted by the Companies' constitution but are fair and can be adequately justified to shareholders if called to do so.

(viii) Flexibility

All the components of remuneration are, in the normal course, a matter of negotiated commercial contract and accordingly, should be sufficiently flexible to suit each individual circumstance.

3.7 Shareholder acceptance

- 3.7.1 Requirements to disclose remuneration in the annual report are seen as a constructive opportunity to communicate with shareholders on all aspects of remuneration.

4. Reporting and Accountability

- 4.1 The Committee shall report formally to the Boards on such issues of its proceedings as it will deem necessary.
- 4.2 The Committee shall make whatever recommendations to the Boards, as it deems appropriate on any area within its remit where action or improvement is needed.
- 4.3 Liaise with the Boards in relation to the Committee's report to be published in the annual reports and other reports to shareholders as required.
- 4.4 Ensure that disclosures are made in the annual reports in compliance with the disclosure provisions of the Code of Corporate Governance.

5. Meetings

5.1 Frequency and Quorum

5.1.1 Meetings of the Committee will be held as the Committee deems to be appropriate. However the Committee shall meet at least once a year. Meetings should be organised so that attendance is maximized. Further meetings may be called by the Chairperson or any member of the Committee;

5.1.2 The quorum necessary for the transaction of business shall be [2] members. A duly convened meeting of the Committee at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all or any of the authorities, powers and discretions vested in or exercisable by the Committee;
